the entry of the record. The State Commissioner of Labor or his duly authorized representative shall, for the purpose of examination, have access to and the right to copy from such time book and/or record for the purpose of prosecuting violations of the provisions of the Act. Any employer who fails to keep such time book and/or record, or knowingly and intentionally makes any false statement therein, or refuses to make such time book and/or record accessible, upon request, to the State Commissioner of Labor or his duly authorized representative shall be deemed to have violated this section.

SEC. 7. Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the State Commissioner of Labor to enforce all the provisions of this Act. The State Commissioner of Labor and his authorized representatives shall have the power and authority to enter any place of employment, and, in the enforcement of this Act, the State Commissioner of Labor and his authorized representatives may enter and inspect as often as practicable all such places of employment. They may investigate all complaints of violations of this Act received by them, and may institute prosecutions as hereinafter provided for violations of this Act.

SEC. 8. Interference With Enforcement. No person shall hinder or delay the State Commissioner of Labor or any of his authorized representatives in the performance of his duties; nor shall any person refuse to (admit), or lock out from, any place of employment the State Commissioner of Labor or any of his authorized representatives, or refuse to give the State Commissioner of Labor or his authorized representatives information required for the proper enforcement of this Act.

SEC. 9. Violation of Act. Any person who, whether on his own behalf or for another, or through an agent, manager, representative, foreman or other person, shall knowingly and intentionally violate any provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 10. Penalties. Whoever knowingly and intentionally violates any provisions of section three or section three and one-half, if same is in force, of this Act, upon complaint lodged by the State Commissioner of Labor, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten ($10.00) dollars or more than fifty ($50.00) dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days at the discretion of the court; and whenever any person shall have been notified by the State Commissioner of Labor or his authorized representative, or by the service of a summons in a prosecution, that he is violating such provision, he shall be subject to like penalties in addition for each and every day that such violation shall have been continued after such notification.

Whoever knowingly and intentionally violates any of the provisions of section five, six, eight, or nine of this Act shall be punished, for the first offense, by a fine of not less than five ($5.00)
